

Development Manual

---

-The following is required for a new programmer to join the team and start contributing

Prerequisites

---

1. Sign up on Github
  2. Download Node.js installer and run it.
- Verify that node is installed and working. In shell/command line, by typing `node --version`
  - Verify that npm is working, by typing `--npm --version`

Installing

---

1. Clone the Github repository:
  - In shell/command line, type `git clone https://github.com/badServers/LateTermAssignment.git`
  - Move to project directory, in shell/command line, `cd LateTermAssignment`
1. Install npm
  - In shell/command line, type `npm install`

Running tests

---

This repository uses Jest testing framework and Supertest.

- To run the tests, in shell/command line type, `npm test`

Running locally

---

- In shell/command line, type, `npm start` to start the Express server.

Deployment on Heroku

---

1. Install the Heroku toolbelt / CLI
2. Login to Heroku from shell/command line, by typing `heroku login`
3. Push code to app. In shell/command line, type `git push heroku master`